THE RESURRECTION

BY THE

SENIORS

OF

RESURRECTION HIGH SCHOOL

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

1943

1944

VOLUMES IX AND X

Dedication

Motivated by the ceremony of the Enthronement, at which we proclaimed the Sacred Heart of Jesus King of every classroom in our school and of everyone therein, we, the Seniors of Resurrection High School, classes of 1943 and 1944, dedicate this Yearbook to Christ the King. It is our fondest hope that in the future whenever we look back at our schooldays through the medium of these pages, the memory of our consecration may inspire us to remain loyal subjects of our Divine King and to be living exemplars of the ideals instilled in us by our Alma Mater.

Foreword

A yearbook more than any other single factor tends to maintain a link between a graduate and her school as well as between classmates. Nevertheless, for various reasons connected with the war effort, some schools have decided to cancel the publication of yearbooks for the duration. We have conceived a better idea. By combining volumes IX and X of The Resurrection into the space of a single book we have been able to conserve materials and manpower and still have the story of our life at school preserved in word and picture to cherish in the future.

Dear Mom and Dad,

To show you how very much I appreciate all that you have done for me by giving me a Catholic education, and especially for sending me to "Res", I am writing this letter to you. I want you to know that all your work and worry does not go to naught. Ever since my first day in school when I was a little tot you've given me the best there was to be had in education, and I want to say in my own little way, "Thanks. a million."

I can remember the first day at school — the Sisters scared me at first, but after they talked to me in their own special manner, I liked them very much. You expected to take me home crying as you did Mary and Jean when they started in the first grade, but you didn't have to because I liked school very much. I sailed through eight years, or I should say, flew, because the time passed very quickly. Yes, before you knew it your skinny little freckly faced beanpole was growing up, much to your disappointment. Then I found myself a Freshman at "Res". What a let-down from a big-shot to a green little "Freshie"! But that didn't last long for soon I was a Sophomore, then a Junior, and finally a Senior. The day I had long anticipated had come at last. Yes, it came fast and it passed twice as quickly. I enjoyed the privileges of a Senior through the Fall and Winter. Then after our semester exams I found myself in the third quarter, quickly followed by the last quarter which brought along with it Spring. It was a beautiful Spring — warm and sunshiny. That was one of the things that made my last year something never to be forgotten. Quite often I went for a walk with some of the other girls around the campus and as we found a nice shady tree and sat down, the thought kept racing through my mind, and I'm sure through the minds of the other girls too, "Enjoy this, Senior, for soon you'll be leaving." It was very hard to believe but those thoughts soon became a reality as on Commencement night I received my diploma and left with a heavy heart. It still didn't seem possible. However, after the exercises I realized that my high school education was as full as it could ever be and I was very thankful to you, Mom and Dad, for everything you did for me during that happy phase of my life. Again I say from the bottom of my heart, "Thanks, a million, Mom and Dad".

Your loving daughter,

"ME"

Dear Resurrection

O there are places great and glorious,
Whose praise the world will e'er proclaim,
O there are places rare and wondrous
Of many deeds and noble name,
But as for me I'll cherish ever
Dear Resurrection tried and true,
My heart and love no place shall sever,
O Resurrection dear from you.

CHORUS:

O Resurrection, dear Resurrection,
With you I long to dwell
In happy mem'ries, O Resurrection,
Because I love you well.

O there are banners rich and flowing,
Whose folds unfurl to sunny skies,
And banners light with radiance glowing
Of every form and every size.
My banner is the Resurrection,
Within its shade I'll shelter find
A genial welcome, a protection,
A joy serene, a peace of mind.

We may have friends whose hearts are loyal,
Who e'er bestow kind words and smile,
Whose welcome is sincere and royal,
Who tarry long in time of trial,
But Resurrection, there is no other
As kind and loyal as are you,
You've played the role of loving mother,
To you I pledge my honor true.

We The Seniors

...realize that in times such as these is it especially necessary for us to obtain as much knowledge as possible to prepare ourselves for the great task that confronts us in the future. From 8:30 A. M. to 3:10 P. M., excluding lunch hours, we get down to business and learn everything which includes Religion, English, Shorthand, Typewriting, American History, and Civics.

...don't spend all our time studying, no sir! We're always ready for a good time as is proven by the many affairs in which we partake, in particular initiation day — the day on which we do what we had always wanted to do since the day we were initiated when we were "Freshies". They too will soon be able to make the Freshmen bow down before them and say "allah".

...are very fond of food, and who isn't!!! When it comes to hot dogs, hamburgers, or chicken dinners, the sandwiches we brought along with us are just a sideline — only "filler-inners". Once or twice a week we have pop. Then glasses of milk stand on the counter like soldiers on guard.

...finally got bookkeeping in our fourth year after clamoring for it for a couple of years. Just ask us about cash journals, balance sheets, work sheets, etc. and we'll be able to give you all the information you desire. (Ahem!)

Honor Students

GENEVIEVE RACZKA, a most obliging and reliable Resurrectionite, brightens people's lives by doing the unexpected and unusual. Her diligence entitles her to a recognition of her good school work.

BERNICE CURRAN, President of the Student Council, ranks high in scholarship and leads her class in typewriting and shorthand. She possesses a refreshing personality.

MARILYN PFISTER'S loyalty to the school and Sodality qualify her as the ideal prefect. She distinguished herself in art, dramatics, scholastic standing, and the highest achievement in commercial subjects. She received honorable mention in the All-American Girl contest.

MARGARET MARY KOHNKE enlivens the work of the Sodality with her enthusiastic sponsorship of various religious projects. She also ranks high in her studies.

DOLORES LANGE, Eucharistic Our Lady chairman of the Sodality, in her quiet and refined manner, works with a perseverance and sense of responsibility all her own. In her studies Dolores holds a high rating.

IRENE SERAFIN, whose scholarship and personality make her an efficient Apostolic chairman of the Sodality, is also our most competent piano accompanist.

JOSEPHINE BUJAK is singled out as the capable social leader, and untiring committee worker, and an effective dramatist. With her fine and radiant school spirit, she rouses the students to action.

MARGARET PAWELCZYK deserves recognition, friendship, and appreciation as the all-round ideal Resurrection girl, most cooperative in things great and small. Her scholastic standing is very good.

DOROTHY MROZ, Resurrection's ever-ready artist in the making, whose timely posters grace the walls of the school for every event, is an outstanding student in all her classes and a leader in social activities.
